FUTURE OF WEST

Mixed Farming Will Greatly Increase Agricultural Prosperity

Mr. F. Maclure Sclanders, Mr. P. Maciure Scianders, com-missioner of Saintatoon recently said:
"The farming crops in Central Sak-tatchewan are of the ploneering agri-cultural type, vis., wheat, oats, barley and flax. Every new district starts with such crops; in due course mixed draming; is thereafter seviewd. It is interesting here to remark that prac-ically everything we have so far ac-complished in this Great West has been done with such ploneering crops, which, as all who are familiar with agriculture will know, are the least profitable that can be raised upon the land.

profitable that can be raised upon the hand.

"Take wheat, for inatance, and then remember that it involves the annual summer fallowing of one-third of our agricultural land. Think of about one-third of the cultivated land in this West doing and producing aboutietly nothing each year? And then imagine if that is possible, what this West will be when even 50 per cent. of our arable land shall be producing not merely wheat but all the infinitely more profitable crops which may be grown anywhere in a similar laittude, and which we have conclusively demonstrated can be produced here to very remarkable advantage.

"It is very encouraging for those who have the bast interest of our country at heart to contemplate this spiendid increase in the growing of outs and harley. The increased preduction of such crops confirms the fact that our people have at last awkened to the wisdom of mixed farming, and to the necessity of work in their offices."

New York American Explains How Canada Has Secured Great Steel Industry

A Detroit despatch to The New

A Detroit despatch to The New York American reads:

"When the heads of the United States Steel Corporation learned a couple of years ago that the reciprocity agreement which the Taft Administration had negotiated with Canada had been defeated by a referendum vote in Canada, they came to Detroit and picked out a spot across the river in Canada, where they could advantageously manufacture and ship steel, and bought it. They have begun work on the construction of a second Gary there. A Canadian city of some 75,000 population, and named Ojibway, will be built up there within three or four years.

"Had the reciprocity pact been ratified that city would have been on the American side of the Detroit River, the labor would have been demertant for the supplies for this labor would have broadened the market of the American farmers who opposed reciprocity.

"The United States Steel Corporation wanted to sell its steel in Canada and was prevented by the Canadian tariff. It wanted to buy ore and raw materials in Canada and was prevented by the American tariff. It desired the best in Canada and was prevented by the American tariff. It desired the best in the Canadian ports and all over the world by water. Opening of the Provincial Schools of Agriculture.

The official opening of the Pro incial Schools of Agriculture wil take place next week. The opening exercises in connection with the Vermilion School will take place at Vermilion, Monday, Novr. 17th; Claresholm, Wednesday, Nov. 19th; and at Olds, Friday, Novr. 21st. The Schools will be open for inspection during the afternoon and classes will be earried on in the differen lines of instruction given at the school so as to show visitors the nature of the work undertaken. A meeting will be held in the evening and addressed by leading speakers in the province. The public are ordially cordially invited to attend thes opening exercises. Invitations ar being sent to the public men in the province, but everybody is invited to attend, and will be made heartily It is most inportant that conveniently situated to these schools will make it a point to be present and see the kind of instruction work that is being carried on. There are now 126 registered pupils in actual attendance at the three schools, and a great deal of interest is being shown in agricultural education in the pro by the farmers and farm

The general public is cordially invited to attend this official opening, and to see the work the school is doing. The plan will be to run the school all day of the 21st, just as it runs every day of the school year. There will be boys in the blacksmith shop, carpenter shop, stock judging from, chemical, phy's cal, dairy and other laboratories.

It is hoped that a large number of dairy and other laboratories.

It is hoped that a large number of the general public will attend to see the practical work that the students are doing. This invitation is especially sent-to the parents of the large number of students who have entered the school for the first time. Within a day or so of the opening of the school, every seat was taken, and 5 boys registered for the first year's work in agriculture at Olds. Principal Elliott has still on his desk 8 or 10 applications from boys who, because of fall work, were unable to attend on the opening day, so that an additional 10 or 12 seats are being the control of the provision for all who wish to attend.
